

CRMA

New Exam. Enhanced Expertise.

UPDATE

Dear members of the IIA North Macedonia

To keep pace with the dynamic global risk arena, The IIA will be relaunching its Certification in Risk Management Assurance® (CRMA®) exam in 2021 to reflect the in-depth organizational knowledge and advanced skill sets required to succeed in risk management assurance.

The revised CRMA is positioned as a career pathway for internal auditors after they have achieved the Certified Internal Auditor® (CIA®) designation. To accomplish this, key changes have been made to the CRMA exam that include:

- All questions are now at proficient level.
- Advanced question formats.
- Extended seat time for the exam.

In addition to the above exam updates, the required work experience is more robust. The collective effect of these changes further aligns the CIA and CRMA, empowering practitioners to showcase their advanced risk management assurance acumen.

Candidates who have been approved for the current CRMA program, please view the CRMA Revision Handbook to learn how the changes impact you.

2021 CRMA Beta Testing

The IIA welcomes active CIA certification holders to be among the first to test the new exam by applying for the CRMA beta test. Participants in the beta test will enjoy a free application and a significantly reduced exam registration fee of $90 USD (versus standard pricing of $445 USD for IIA members/$580 USD for nonmembers)*.

The application for the updated CRMA program will be available on 1 April 2021.

Visit the Updated CRMA program webpage for details about the updated program, timeline, and beta testing.
