ABOUT STRUGA

Struga is a city in the southwestern part of the Republic of North Macedonia that lies on both banks of the River Crn Drim and on the northern coast of Ohrid Lake.

What gives Struga its recognizable face is the river Black Drim that flows from the lake and through the city. Along the river bed, is what you'd consider the center of the town. A nice place where you can have your coffee, and very enjoyable evening walks. The bridges along the river only add towards the poetic scenery.

Struga is the home-city of the Miladinov brothers poets who played a crucial part in the Macedonian national revival and in whose honor the Struga Poetry Evenings are held in the city.
